

NEW! FORTHCOMING!
PROVENZANO: SIDE BY SIDE
WITH SONDHEIM, MERMAN, AND GYPSY

Palm Drive Publishing with its entertaining mix of literary and erotic aspects of gay fiction makes a perfect home for the seventh novel by Lambda Literary Award-winning author Jim Provenzano, whose seventh novel, Finding Tulsa, will be published in Autumn 2020.

Since 1997, Palm Drive Publishing, an independent small press based north of the Golden Gate Bridge, has published award-winning literary novels, memoirs, short story anthologies, essay collections, and photo books. Publisher Mark Henry steered Dr. Jack Fritscher's novels Some Dance to Remember (Lammy finalist) and What They Did to the Kid respectively to "Best Book of the Year" and "Storyteller of the Year" awards from ForeWord Magazine.

Henry also commissioned and published Jim Stewart's beloved award-winning memoir, Folsom Street Blues, and edited and designed the international multi-author fiction anthologies Tales of the Bear Cult and Chasing Danny Boy: Powerful Stories of Celtic Eros.

Other finalist trophies on the Palm Drive shelf include honors accrued from the Lambda Literary Foundation, multiple Independent Publisher and ForeWord awards, as well as two gold medals for "Best Book of the Year" in 2008 and 2017 from the National Leather Association Literary Awards for Gay San Francisco: Eyewitness Drummer and for Gay Pioneers: How Drummer Magazine Shaped Gay Popular Culture 1965-1999.

JIM PROVENZANO, FINDING TULSA, 337 pages. Palm Drive Publishing, $24.95, Ingram Distributors. September 2020 email: mark@palmdrivepublishing.com